

Constitution of the Rocky Mountain Naturalists Club

1. The club shall be known as the Rocky Mountain Naturalists, hereafter referred to as “the Club”.
2. The Objectives of the Club shall be:
 - A. To foster a public awareness, appreciation, and understanding of our natural environment, and to promote a better understanding of the value of our heritage in nature so that it may be wisely used and maintained for future generations;
 - B. Wherever practical and within the current legal and legislative framework, to conserve flora and fauna and all other elements of our natural world;
 - C. To provide enjoyable and informative opportunities for members and guests to learn about the natural world; and
 - D. To affiliate with and support the Federation of British Columbia Naturalists (“BC Nature”) and to co-operate with groups having similar aims and objectives.
3. The Club shall be operated without the purpose of gain for its members, and any profits shall be used in promoting its objectives.
